With 'Diesel Technic' IVECO NZ dealers become one-stop facilities

In a boon for operators with multi-brand fleets, IVECO NZ has expanded its range of aftermarket parts and accessories from Diesel Technic (DT), positioning IVECO dealers as true one-stop parts and service outlets for all European made trucks.

Founded in Germany in 1972, DT is one of the world's largest suppliers of automotive parts and accessories. With a presence in 150 countries around the world, its DT Spare Parts and SIEGEL Automotive brands are renowned for their quality and reliability.

The products are suitable for all brands of European truck currently available in New Zealand, and can be relied upon to ensure the continued high performance of these vehicles at all stages of their lifecycle.

"IVECO NZ's partnership with Diesel Technics is not just great news for our IVECO dealer network, but also for New Zealand transport businesses," IVECO Dealer Principal - New Zealand, Jason Keddie, said.

"It means that regardless of what brands and models they run in their fleets, their service and maintenance requirements can all be met by one reliable outfit. They can leave all their trucks in the safe hands of our professional, experienced technicians and know that they will receive the best parts and service available."

All DT aftermarket parts and accessories are available to IVECO NZ dealers by way of the newly released 'DT Portal'. A simple to use online system, the portal ensures that all DT parts are readily available to all dealers, when and where they need them, reducing owner downtime.

For added peace of mind, DT parts are subject to the manufacturer's rigorous quality management and monitoring processes. They are documented in DT's Integrated Management System and are subject to its Continuous Improvement Process.

As Mr Keddie pointed out, IVECO NZ's partnership with DT empowers New Zealand truck owners to contribute to the future development and improvement of DT's product offerings. The company encourages regular, open feedback from distribution partners and their workshop customers from around the world.
